Nowadays there are a plenty of countries around the world and each one gives to our world something unique. Let's figure out with this topic.

First of all, I would like to start from food. Every country or nation has its own ^{lex} ~~Kitchen~~ ^{lex}. For example, Italy, they have ^{lex} ~~invented~~ pizza, pasta, etc. Germany ~~when~~ hamburgers, beer and other easy meals.

Secondly, natural resources are also a major part of some countries' economy. To begin with, I would like to give a Russia as an example. Gas, oil, gold, silver, diamonds - it is not even a tenth part of Russia's natural resources. All Europe use Russian gas and oil. Also, Saudi Arabia, Kuwaiti, Qatar gives a plenty of resources to the world.

Thirdly, one of the most important part of each country ^{or} ~~are~~ cultural activities. For example, United States of America ^{or} ~~was~~ the first country to celebrate parties. Also, ^{any} ~~every~~ of sports events in United States is a celebration. A lot of countries follow this ~~this~~ system.

To sum up, every country in the world is unique and each of them gives to the world something unusual. That's why we should be in tune with each other, be together and share experience and traditions.
